The Stuart Hall Project, 2013
(Dir. John Akomfrah)

Sunday 1 December,
Glasgow Film Theatre, 3.50pm,

Highly acclaimed at this year's Sundance and Sheffield Doc/Fest, John Akomfrah's latest documentary is an absorbing tribute to cultural theorist Stuart Hall. Focusing on Hall's life story, the documentary uses a montage of archival imagery and specially filmed material to explore Hall's opinions on subjects such as identity, equality and culture.

Introduced by Steven Cairns

Presented by Glasgow Film Theatre as part of their 'Crossing the Line' series

For booking information please contact GFT box office: 0141 332 6535 or visit: <http://www.glasgowfilm.org>

House Style presents a series of new commissions by Hilda Hellström, Travis Jeppesen, Rob Kennedy and Daniel Padden in response to a specially selected film programme sourced from the British Film Institute National Archive.

House Style is presented in partnership with Tramway with generous support from Creative Scotland.
